Why I Love The Dark

Gerald del Campo
(http://www.Thelema.net/~cypher1000/books.html)

Tis the coldest place imaginable, this void within the heart, the place most adventurers wander, expecting to be torn apart.

Some have walked there for eternity, seeking to find some Light, a small glimmer or a flicker, to end the endless night.

The fowl wind howls insanity, it passes through the body like a ghost, the chill can freeze the very Soul, survive if you are more skilled than most.

Despite the hideous experience, which one encounters in the Dark, the journey is very worth it, make sure to leave your mark.

So listen up weary traveler, strike with all your might,
but rejoice in the journey, in the Dark you'll find the Light.
